Miller Chiropractic Newsletter

December

2016

As we gear up for the holidays and wind down 2016, Miller Chiropractic thanks our patient family and wishes you and yours all the joys and Blessings of the season.

From now through the end of December, we are offering great savings on products that can help keep you or someone on your gift list well-adjusted on Wellness Wednesday's, as well as our annual ham and candy contests, which you can read about below.

The Fond du Lac STEM Academy still has Poinsettias for sale, and you can purchase a $15 coupon for a $25 plant in our office while supplies last.

Please note that the office will be closed on Monday, December 26.

Wellness Wednesdays run through December

As an alternative to 'Black Friday,' Dr. Miller introduced 'Wellness Wednesdays' on November 23rd offering great discounts on products to help keep you and those you love well-adjusted, and we are happy to announce that Wellness Wednesdays will continue through the end of the year.

Kids' Candy Contest Returns

Once again this year we are inviting children under 12 to take a guess at how many candies are in the Christmas Tree Jar.

The child who guesses closest to the correct number gets to take the tree and the candy home on December 21st.

Ham for the Holidays

Between now and December 21st, each time you visit the office for an appointment you are eligible to enter our annual drawing for a Christmas Ham. NEW this year, you can get one extra entry by liking the Miller Chiropractic Facebook Page.

We will draw for the ham at the end of business on December

Stay well-adjusted and don't forget to call the office for your next appointment.
